Following the example of Glyn Moody, I thought I'd start a log on the tweets I send around. One never knows what'll happen to Twitter and besides, this provides a neat place to store and find everything. So here are the tweets for July first and second:

- Where are we, what still needs to be done? Stevan Harnad on the State of Open Access <https://poynder.blogspot.com/2013/07/where-are-we-what-still-needs-to-be.html>
- #Snowden could be offered witness protection in potential German federal anti-spy lawsuit (in German) <https://spon.de/adYDF>
- Check out the slides from the talks at the @SPARC_EU session last week: <https://sparceurope.org/presentations-sparc-europe-open-session-2013/>
- My latest upload : Sparc munich on @slideshare <https://buff.ly/1cLdmUv>
- Mike Taylor's brilliant analysis of #openaccess <https://buff.ly/11WmBzH>
- Molecular and cellular mechanisms of dopamine-mediated behavioral plasticity in the striatum <https://rss.sciencedirect.com/action/redirectFile?&zone=main¤tActivity=feed&usageType=outward&url=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.sciencedirect.com%2Fsc>
- Open Access: Where are we, what still needs to be done? <https://feedly.com/k/10v2kAg>
- Can GlamMag editors/authors count? Last sentence in abstract of <https://www.nature.com/ng/journal/vaop/ncurrent/full/ng.2676.html> ... via @Lab_Journal <https://www.laborjournal.de/blog/?p=6531>
- Can't wait to hear what they say when they find out about Drosophila and FoxP 😊 From the Mouths of Babes and Birds <https://buff.ly/128Vwoc>
- @Druidaeduardo The brain makes the mind real much like it makes colors real (analogy from Dennett): <https://bjoern.brembs.net/2013/06/free-w>
- Human behaviour: is it all in the brain – or the mind? <https://gu.com/p/3gq5j/tw>
- Enough rhetoric. It's evidence that should shape key public decisions <https://gu.com/p/3hx3p/tw>

That's that for now. We'll see how frequently I'll be updating this category and for how long I manage to do it.
