I am reorganizing my blogs, and will now take advantage of the labels concept of Blogger. The new URLs are:

- Chemical blogspace becomes http://chem-bla-ics.blogspot.com/search/label/chemicalblogspace
- A Chemical RCP Adventure becomes http://chem-bla-ics.blogspot.com/search/label/planeteclipse
- Kemistry Desktop Environment becomes http://chem-bla-ics.blogspot.com/search/label/kemistry

And likewise for one or two other blogs. Not all labels are used yet, and I might repost some old posts, or perhaps write up some new content.
